

Northern Monkey

Well then pet...

I'm a Bakewell tart fiend, ex Byker Grover, straight talking (with a slight twang), nutrition nutter, that comes with being a fond exercise go'er, battered mars bar promoter, beach and surfing enthusiast, conceptual creative, Art Director, canny lad, Adam.

Creating Immersive, captivating stories are my passion and telling them visually is my A game. Blessed with this native tongue, my words are better heard than read.
